FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

At the very end of the eleventh chapter of the gospel of Matthew, we hear Jesus' words to His followers: "Come to me all you who are weary and heavy burdened and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." Jesus invited people to be a part of His life and He gave them a lot of love and encouragement. I believe that our church needs to emulate that same attitude to the world around us and the way that happens is for you, the people of the church, to be welcoming and inviting to the people in your life.

Yet, just a few chapters later, in Matthew chapter sixteen, Jesus says something very different to His disciples, "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will find it." Jesus challenged the people following Him, the people with close personal relationships to Him, in meaningful ways to live their lives in a radically new way when it came to their faith. I believe that our church also needs to emulate that kind of attitude to the world around us. And the way that happens is also for you, the people of the church, to hold one another accountable and challenge each other to live out your faith wherever you study, work, play and live.

In Mike Breen's book, Building a Discipling Culture, he maintains that churches often fall far short of God's intention for us to be a place where people are empowered in their faith. Sometimes we lean far too much into just being a cozy place where sinners feel welcome but are never held accountable for their sinful behaviors or challenged to live a new life worthy of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Other times, churches focus only on what God demands of them and place expectations on their members that make it feel like God is a taskmaster with little love or compassion. In the worst cases, many churches are both boring (no challenge for people to change their lives) and apathetic (no desire to invite people into a relationship with God or anyone else). The sweet spot is for us to both be very inviting to people and also be willing to challenge them in their journey of faith. How might Emmanuel be this type of church?

Lent is a great time to do some self-reflection. We are called by God to repent of our sins and seek to change our lives to look more like His—that is a great challenge! However, the story of Jesus' passion, how He gave His life for sinners, is a wonderful reminder that He has compassion for the lost and the unrighteous. This can be both a comfort to us and to those we might come into contact with. How do you feel this balance in your own life or in your ministry here at Emmanuel?

For example, are you only happy when you hear sermons about forgiveness but cringe when I talk about turning away from sin? When you help at GROW, are you only focused on getting the kids to sit still and learn their lesson or are you also paying attention to what is going on in their lives? When was the last time you called someone up from church and told them you have been missing them at worship services? When was the last time you invited a stranger to join us at worship services? We all tend to lean one way or another when it comes to challenge and comfort and yet they are both important aspects of our culture here at Emmanuel. Are you in a season where you need to hear comforting words from God or a challenge to action from the Holy Spirit?

I hope that these questions will lead to more conversation about how we can become a discipling culture where we come to faith, invite others to faith, honor God's Word and challenge others to do the same. Amen.

E.L.C. COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES ANNOUNCEMENT

Due to the rescheduling of the February Council meeting and the need for an earlier March newsletter deadline, look for two months of minutes in the April newsletter. Thank you for understanding!

5 REASONS TO SEND YOUR CHILD TO BIBLE CAMP

It's still winter and we're just starting to climb out of the bitter cold of the Polar Vortex, so why am I even thinking about summer Bible camp?! Because now is the time to get your children registered!

The times I spent at Bible camp were the most influential times in my life AND in my faith development. I wouldn't be the person I am today without the influence of Bible camp. If you didn't experience Bible camp as a child or teen, you may wonder how it can really be that important. I mean, can't children receive the same benefits in summer programs through Vacation Bible School.

Here are five reasons why you should send your child to Bible camp this summer:

1. Concentrated Time in God's Creation

Camps are intentional about spending most of the day outside, immersed in God's creation. This is a time to escape the pressures of everyday life (and detox from screens) in an amazing environment!

2. Concentrated Time in Spiritual Conversations

During each day of Bible camp, your child is included in several times of intentional spiritual conversations: morning devotions, cabin devotions, and chapel time. As our culture moves farther away from the knowledge of God, these very visible times of faith applied to "all of life" becomes even more important.

3. New Friends and Role Models

If recent times has taught us anything, it's that relationships matter...and in-person relationships matter the most. One week at Bible camp is like one year (or more) in "real" life. The intensive time together and the abundance of shared experiences grows relationships quickly.

4. New Experiences

Bible Camp is a great place to try new things. Campers are in a new environment and with people they don't know from "regular" life. This gives them the freedom to "re-invent" themselves through new experiences.

An introverted child will make many new friends. A timid child may choose to try the high ropes course or go all in for water activities. A "non-athletic" child may excel at the crazy camp games. All these new experiences will give your child a broader view of themselves and increase their confidence.

5. Fosters Independence (In A Safe Environment)

While cabin leaders are a very active and integral part of your child's life at camp, there is still the independence gained from being away from home and parents for an extended time. Children are able to make choices and try new things that they may not while a parent is around. They also experience the natural consequences of their actions (in a safe environment): lost water bottles, sand in the bed, poison ivy, a belly ache from too much candy, etc.

This new independence and confidence often follow a child home from camp. As a parent, be ready for this and embrace your child's growth in these areas!

Are you wanting your child to have a safe and meaningful camp experience? Riverside Lutheran Bible Camp and Ingham-Okoboji Lutheran Bible Camp are the places to look. Providing opportunities for campers & families of all ages right here in Iowa, these Christ centered camps will push your child's faith to the next level! But, sign-up soon as spots are filling up fast! Emmanuel Lutheran Church has made a commitment to help kids afford camp and will pay half of the registration fee! See Pastor Broers or Denise Bridges for more information. We also have firsthand knowledge of these camps, give us a call today.

Grief Share Meetings Begin April 16

We have been leading Grief Share Support Groups in this community for the past several years and are preparing to begin another series. This is a comfort and support group to help people who are grieving the loss of a loved one. This series will begin Sunday, April 16, at 4:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. There is no cost to attend this program. It is sponsored by a memorial to Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Fontanelle. It is Christian in nature, but is nondenominational. We sponsor this support group because we know that the loss of a loved one can be devastating. We understand that even if you are a mature Christian with a solid faith, you need ongoing comfort and encouragement during the grieving period. This program is structured as a weekly group that combines video teaching and small group discussion. If you question whether these sessions would be useful to you, you are welcome to attend the first session and see if the information would benefit you. You aren't obligated to anything whatsoever—we just wish for you to receive the help you need to deal with your grief. Anyone is welcome to attend this program, so if you know of someone who would benefit from a program like this, please let them know about it or tell us about them. Contacts:

It's the season of love and yet, our world for our kids is full of everything and not just good at the moment. Considering all the conflict everywhere we look, you might be wondering how we can make a difference. We can start by adopting these simple habits: Be an encourager, focus on the bright side of things and speak God's truth.

This is exactly what happens here at church every Wednesday night as the G.R.O.W. kids come running into our doors. It is such a gift to be able to witness relationships being built among the kids and the adults at the church. My favorite part of the night is that we get to share the love of Christ with each and every person there. It is honestly one of my most favorite things to do in all the world! Without this church and each one of you we would not be able to do this, thank you.

This past month, we learned and watched from Jesus how to help and be a part of people's lives. From the stories of the healing of the 10 lepers and remembering to be thankful, the story of Zacchaeus and our Lord going to HIS house and the Women at the well and that everyone matters, it was a busy month of learning.

Our Month Theme Verse is from Matthew 21:22 "And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive, if you have faith." It is our prayer that through working as a family to memorize these verses for a whole month, the kids might have these verses to rely on when facing day-to-day problems and to refer to in how to treat one another.

Lent begins with Ash Wednesday and this year that fell on February 22nd. Please remember that during Lent (Feb. 22-April 5), our G.R.O.W. schedule changes so that we dismiss at 7:15 p.m. This enables our G.R.O.W. kids, their families, and our G.R.O.W. volunteers the opportunity to gather together for Lenten worship at 7:30 p.m. If you are not planning to stay for worship, please make sure you are on time to pick-up your children.

Lastly, just a reminder – if school is canceled due to bad weather, G.R.O.W. will also be canceled. We will post the news on our Facebook page, so make sure and like us on Facebook.

G.R.O.W. is on Wednesdays from 6:00-7:30 p.m. Please invite your children, grandchildren and neighbors to come learn, sing, eat and have lots of fun while growing in their faith lives! Please continue to keep the G.R.O.W. children and volunteers in your prayers as our year continues. We want to see seeds planted, lives changed, and God shining through all of us. Thanks!

G.R.O.W. students thank Pastor Broers for his work at church.

YOUTH MINISTRY UPDATE—MARCH

It's exciting to start with a praise, our numbers even with the winter weather continue to increase and in February we are averaging 40+ kids each week at G.R.O.W. We continue to learn stories from the New Testament. Coming back from a few weeks off, we have been busy learning about the many ways that Jesus taught us to care and love one another. My favorite story about Zacchaeus shows us that ALL of us are included in Jesus' love. As I write this, we are in a Winter Storm Watch, so I am praying we will have our special Kids Fun Night this week with a theme of....Snow!

Our K.F.C. (High School Kids for Christ) group enjoyed a game night in January with many different games, Sardines (hide and seek), and of course food. In February, 7 kids along with Denise and Brittany headed to the Winter Jam Concert in Des Moines. To see thousands of young adults worshipping God left me speechless and full of awe in God's everlasting love.

The kids also hosted a Valentine Breakfast on February 12. Many biscuits with gravy were consumed and with an offering of over $400, they will be able to use some for camp but also to support their project of supplying foster kids with blankets, diaper bags and stuffed animals. Items like this help provide comfort and show love during a difficult time.

With the scheduling of our VBS program for June 19-22, the time is approaching to start our plans. We will have the Riverside Counselors assisting us again this year. All members of the church are invited to a Children's Ministry Meeting on Sunday, March 19 at 4:30 in the parish hall.

Feel free to stop by and see me with any suggestions or feedback on our youth programs. Stay warm and just think soon it will be summer and time for Vacation Bible School and Summer Camp!

~Denise Bridges
